

WRITES ON CITY TAX STATEMENT

Woolley Says Democrats Took More to Run City Than G. O. P.

The following communication was received by The Standard-Examiner this morning:

Editor Standard-Examiner,

Dear Sir:

In your issue of October 13th there appeared an editorial, entitled "Taxes in Ogden City" wherein comment is made upon the political bias of the assessment of the Republican County Central committee, published in your issue of last Sunday.

You charge that the ad was deceptive to the casual reader, in its reference to city and county taxes. The tabulation which is criticized was lifted from the records contained in the county clerk's office, and the segregations are those made by that office in the official records. I feel sure that even a casual reading of the tabulation will disclose to any citizen that the word "City" referred to city property, and the word "County" to property outside of the city, in relation to assessments and total taxes. We did not give the amount received by Ogden City, and no attempt was made to compare the city administration. As a matter of fact, the increased assessed valuation on property in Ogden City, from the year 1919 to 1920, was $2,155,797.00, and this at the tax rate of 3.05 mills, levied for city purposes, makes an increase in the amount levied for city purposes of $26,484.66.

I wish to again emphasize that the advertisement was a comparison of the year 1916, the last year of Republican control, with the year 1920, the last year of Democratic control. The tabulation discloses that for purely county purposes, exclusive of the school and state road funds, the taxes levied upon the citizens for the year 1916, totaled $111,982.76, and for the year 1920 they totaled $255,849.05, an increase of $124,866.31. In other words, it required more than twice as much to run the Democrats to run the government of Weber county for one year than it did the Republicans. That is the outstanding fact, in which the people of Weber county are now interested.

Yours very truly,

ARTHUR WOOLLEY,
Chairman, Republican County Central Committee.

EDITH MAY, CONTEST WINNER, IS A BASEBALL FAN

BROOKLYN—Edith May Leuenberger of Monroe, Wis., winner in the national salesgirl beauty contest, and now in New York to fill an engagement with Flo Ziegfeld's Follies and with the Mayflower Photoplay corporation, was an interesting, yet bewildered spectator at the second world series ball game. After she had snapped a few pictures of the Brooklyn and Cleveland players, and shook hands with Tris Speaker, manager of the Indians, she got lost in the crowd. Fans finally located her and were then disappointed when she left the field to keep an engagement at Ziegfeld's matinee performance.

They're Here At Last

One Hundred Suits and One Hundred Overcoats Worth to $65. All Priced - 45

When the store opens tomorrow, we'll have ready the greatest bargains in men's good clothes that have been offered since the war. We've turned topsy-turvy the old-fashioned method of buying men's apparel.

Refusing to buy last spring, when manufacturers were taking fall orders, we waited. Two weeks ago our buyer went into the east with a lot of cash. Every good maker of clothes was eager to sell him. We have suits and coats here now, all-wool clothes, made as good as clothing can be made, clothes that we'll stand behind. Coats and suits at $45 that you cannot match anywhere under $65. Come for a look tomorrow. Young men, old men, stout men—models for them all. Two hundred garments at $45.

Boy's Suits at $9 and $13. Worth Double

We've bought boys' suits the same way. We'll sell you a suit for the boy now at $9 that looks like $20 and will wear until he outgrows it. At $13 you may have suits that are pure wool, smart of style, sturdy; suits like those that have been offered at $25 in the past two seasons. Selling begins tomorrow in the Juvenile Department (old Shoe Section, First Floor).

'Million Dollar Eyes' Beauty in 'Riders of Dawn,' Ogden Sunday

Violet Schram, she of the "million dollar eyes," leads the blinding effect of those beautiful optics to "Riders of Dawn," the new feature at the Ogden Theatre. Her eyes are the "million dollar eyes" of the French girl who is a part of the intrigue against the wheat rancher, Kurt Dorn, pretends to be his wife, during the war.

Thereby Roy Stewart, as "Kurt Dorn," and Claire Adams, as "Lenore Anderson," are forced to part; more damage wrought by the famous "million dollar eyes" of Violet Schram. Her eyes are the "million dollar eyes" of the French girl who is a part of the intrigue against the wheat rancher, Kurt Dorn, pretends to be his wife, during the war.

Her eyes are the "million dollar eyes" of the French girl who is a part of the intrigue against the wheat rancher, Kurt Dorn, pretends to be his wife, during the war.

OFFERS PRIZE FOR LARGEST BEET

Lighthouse Gives Electric Iron To Grower of Largest Sugar Beet

Considerable interest is being manifested by local beet growers in the efforts of the Lighthouse Electric company to secure the largest sugar beet raised in this community.

The local electrical firm is offering a six-pound Hot Point electric iron as an inducement to get the beet grower to bring his largest beet to their store before October 20th.

An attractive display on the sugar industry has been placed in the window of the electric firm and the large beet of each day's collection is included.—Advertisement.

CHANGES MIND; RETURNS WEST

Woman Halts Trip in Connection With Coast Whisky Scandal

After coming from San Francisco as far as Ogden, the first leg of her journey to Washington, D. C., whither she was believed to have been bound to place charges of irregularities in connection with whisky permits against an inland revenue collector and others employed in the prohibition department in San Francisco, Mrs. Glad Kimball Warburton, formerly of Salt Lake, suddenly changed her mind and returned to the coast.

Following her return she received a telegram appointing her supervising agent in charge of prohibition in California, a newly created position.

She is the daughter of J. Golden Kimball, Salt Lake, and the wife of H. F. Warburton, a grocery clerk at Tooele. Mrs. Warburton, who is in her early twenties, became prohibition director at San Francisco recently when Loren A. Handley, who held that office, was killed in an automobile accident. Mrs. Warburton had been Mr. Handley's secretary.

Dispatches from San Francisco in regard to the affair contained the following information:

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Glad Kimball Warburton, who was named as prohibition director here last week, charges her removal from that position to politics, and accuses an inland revenue collector and others in federal positions of irregularities in connection with whisky permits. She left here last week, ostensibly for Washington, to place her charges with Arthur West, Al Wohlman and John Sheehan.

Why REOLO Restores Health

REOLO supplies to the blood the natural organic, vegetable iron (which is the only kind of iron that the blood will assimilate) and the twelve inorganic cell-salts which nourish the cells of the nerves, blood, tissues, brain and bones.

REOLO rapidly increases the number of red blood cells, and plasma of the blood, increases the supply of oxygen, aids digestion, strengthens the nerves, cleanses the system, stimulates the circulation, and gives renewed strength and energy.

It has restored thousands of sick, discouraged men and women to health and happiness. Test it at our risk. If REOLO does not benefit you, the two weeks' trial will not cost you anything. Don't delay. Next month may be too late. Start taking REOLO today—and give it a fair trial.

Test It Free!

Go to your druggist—get a box of Reolo, and deposit with him the regular price. If a box is evidence of good faith. Then take Reolo regularly according to directions until you have used the entire box. After two weeks' trial, if you are not perfectly satisfied your druggist will gladly refund your money.

REOLO, INCORPORATED
Cleveland, Ohio

A. H. McIntyre Drug Co., two good stores, Ogden, Utah, and all leading druggists.

IS MOVIE FAN TIRED OF THRILLS?

Simplicity spells success in the motion picture world today, thinks William Desmond Taylor, producer of Reolart special feature films. Especially is this true overseas, declares Mr. Taylor, who made a careful study of the attitude of the play-going public while he was in Europe serving as a captain in the British army. He says the Americans have no idea how sick of excitement they are in Europe.

"They lived thrills there for five years," he says, "and now they are worn out with tense emotion; their nervous system has been strained to the utmost, and rebels at further excitement. Simple stories of human life, wholesome scenes of comedy and sentiment, are what they laugh over now. Plays that are purely sensational are not well liked. I noted while I was abroad."

Since his return to America last year, Mr. Taylor has directed several photoplays for Miss Mary Miles Minter, the young Reolart star, and is now engaged in making several special all-star feature plays for Reolart. In these he practices his gospel of simple, human appeal rather than sensationalism. There are few directors who have approached Mr. Taylor in his handling of the simple, human side of life. He can pack more solid interest into fifty feet of film with a nest of birds or a couple of kittens than many a director can achieve with an automobile smash-up, and a kidnapping. Critics agreed that his "Huckleberry Finn" was a screen classic, and his new boy picture, "The Soul of Youth," with Lewis Sargent, who played Huck, in the leading role, promises to be an even greater picture of boy life. It is now playing at the Alhambra theatre together with the Ogden Boy Scout pictures taken in Yellowstone park.

BIG MUSICAL SHOW COMING

As crammed with action as a Fairbanks film, as dazzling as a Griffith Babylonian scene, as abundant a laugh producer as a Mck Sennell comedy, raised to the nth degree, partly describes the "Satires of 1920," says Walter Rivers, San Francisco critic in his review regarding Fanchon and Maxco's vehicle for the season of 1920-21, which comes to the Orpheum theatre, two days, Sunday and Monday, October 17 to 18.

This unique offering, a revue with a plot, has all the "pep" which made "Let's Go," the last year's vehicle of these Western producers and stars, such a glittering success. Pep is the only holdover from that bubbling production which invaded the East and played to capacity houses for 45 weeks.

The plot is the satirization of the movie industry and portrays the troubles of a Texaco oil king, filled with the belief that he is destined to become a magnate, attempts to produce a fea-

ROOSEVELT CHALLENGES COOLIDGE TO DEBATE

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice presidential candidate, last night challenged Governor Coolidge, Republican nominee for vice president, to a joint debate on the league of nations "any time, any place."

The challenge was contained in a telegram addressed to Senator Pat Harrison, chairman of the Democratic national speakers' bureau, which Mr. Roosevelt read before an audience which packed the coliseum here. It said:

"Have just read of your offer for joint debate between Governor Cox

PLOT TO BLOW UP PRISON IN ONTARIO REVEALED

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 15.—A plot to effect the wholesale escape of prisoners in Portsmouth penitentiary and then blow up the prison with nitroglycerine was thwarted yesterday.

Prison officials, acting on a warning that an attempt would be made to free the convicts, tore down portions of the penitentiary wall and uncovered a store of rifles, shot guns and ammunition with enough of the explosive to have destroyed the structure.

Authorities declared their belief that the plot was about to be put into execution, prisoners freed, guards slain and the prison itself blown up.

Although no official account of the conspiracy has been given, it is known that suspicious of the prison authorities recently were aroused. An investigation is under way. Four convicts, known to be exceptionally dangerous, have been placed in solitary confinement.

Texas, Georgia and South Carolina produce more than one-half of the cotton in the United States.

OVER MILLION PAID ON IRISH REPUBLICAN LOAN

DUBLIN, Oct. 15.—The Sinn Fein last night issued a detailed statement on the amount received at headquarters from Ireland, Great Britain and France for the republican loan. The total reached approximately 372,000 pounds.

"California Syrup of Figs"

Delicious Laxative for Child's Liver and Bowels

Hurry mother! A teaspoonful of "California" Syrup of Figs today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If your child is constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good "physic-laxative" is often all that is necessary. Children love the "fruity" taste of genuine "California" Syrup of Figs which has directions for babies and children printed on the bottle. Say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. Beware!

FOOTBALL--DOUBLE HEADER

OGDEN HIGH vs UTAH FRESHMEN
WEBER NORMAL COLLEGE vs OGDEN A. A.

LORIN FARR PARK SAT. OCT. 16. ADMISSION 50c
FIRST GAME 2:00 SECOND GAME 3:30